12 | Counsel for Defendant Activision Blizzard, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

18 | FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION,

Case No. 3:23-cv-02880-JSC

19 Plaintiff,

DECLARATION OF PAGE ROBINSON IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT ACTIVISION
BLIZZARD, INC.'S STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION'S ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CONSIDER WHETHER ANOTHER
PARTY'S MATERIAL SHOULD BE
SEALED (Civil L.R. 79-5(f)) [ECF NO. 35]

20 v.
21 MICROSOFT CORP.,
and
22 ACTIVISION BLIZZARD, INC.

Defendants.

Judge: Hon. Jacqueline Scott Corley

1 I, Page Robinson, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a Senior Director of Litigation and Intellectual Property at Activision
 3 Blizzard, Inc. (“Activision”). I submit this declaration in support of Activision’s Statement
 4 in Response to Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission’s Administrative Motion to Consider
 5 Whether Another Party’s Material Should be Sealed. In my role, I have personal
 6 knowledge of Activision’s use and protection of non-public, highly sensitive, and 7 confidential business information, including the information at issue here.

8 2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below, and I can and would 9 competently testify to such facts if called to do so.

10 3. I have reviewed and am familiar with the portions of Plaintiff’s Notice of 11 Motion and Emergency Motion For Temporary Restraining Order (“TRO”), the 12 Declaration of Jennifer Fleury, along with the exhibits filed in support thereof that Plaintiff
 13 filed under seal because they contained information designated by Activision as 14 “Confidential.” Such information is identified in Plaintiff’s Administrative Motion to 15 Consider Whether Another Party’s Material Should be Sealed (ECF No. 35) (the 16 “Administrative Motion”).

17 4. As set forth in the Statement in Response to the Administrative Motion,
 18 some of the portions identified in Plaintiff’s Administrative Motion contain non-public and 19 highly sensitive information, including, but not limited to, information reflecting 20 confidential internal business data, revenue figures and projections, business strategy and 21 planning, assessments of the competitive landscape, internal decision-making processes,
 22 strategic evaluation of forward-looking opportunities, and market share analyses.

23 5. As further set forth in the Statement in Response to the Administrative 24 Motion, some of the portions identified in Plaintiff’s Administrative Motion contain non-
 25 public and highly sensitive information, including, but not limited to, information
 26 reflecting the terms of, and negotiations regarding, confidential agreements that Activision
 27 does not disclose to third parties.

1 6. This information could be used to injure Activision if made publicly
2 available, and it would cause competitive harm to Activision if the above information was
3 publicly disclosed. For example, disclosure of this information would give Activision's
4 competitors insight into its strategies, plans, and assessments regarding potential
5 opportunities, and those competitors may alter their strategic plans or offerings if they
6 knew Activision's strategies and plans. Disclosure of this information would also harm
7 Activision by allowing its competitors to circumvent the time and resources expended by 8 Activision in developing its internal practices and strategies. Disclosure of this information
9 would further harm Activision's negotiating position with its business partners.

10 7. Activision takes robust measures to maintain the confidentiality of all the 11 above-described information, including limiting internal disclosure of some of this 12 information to persons on a need-to-know basis, and does not disclose it publicly. All of 13 this information was designated as confidential pursuant to Section 21 of the FTC Act, 15
14 U.S.C. § 57b-2, and/or as Confidential pursuant to the Protective Order Governing 15 Confidential Material entered on December 9, 2022 in In the matter of Microsoft Corp. &
16 Activision Blizzard, Inc. Docket No. 9412 (FTC). For these reasons, Activision
17 respectfully requests that the Court order the portions set forth in its Statement in Response
18 to the Administrative Motion to be sealed.

19 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America
20 that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

22 Executed on June 20, 2023, in San Francisco, California.
